The Bible says that there is nothing we can do in ourselves to deal with the problem of sin. God must do it all. And the wonderful declaration of the gospel is that God has done it all. There is nothing we can do to add to his finished work. There is nothing we can do to make God love us more—no amount of spiritual calisthenics, no amount of study or knowledge, no amount of crusading on behalf of righteous causes.

And there is nothing we can do to make him love us less. According to Christian counselor David Seamands: “... the two major causes of most emotional problems among evangelical Christians are these: the failure to understand, receive, and live out God’s unconditional love, grace and forgiveness; and the failure to give out that unconditional love, forgiveness, and grace to other people... We read, we hear, we believe a good theology of grace. But that’s not the way we live. The good news of the gospel of grace has not penetrated the level of our emotions.”
